2 . Things you need to know about this release

International Passenger Survey

Estimates derived from the International Passenger Survey (IPS) are used to help measure exports and imports of travel services. The IPS has recently transferred data collection from paper forms to tablet computers. While initial analysis of the new data found no detectable discontinuities, we are continuing to check the data. Therefore, headline trade and other national accounts estimates will continue to include some forecast data for exports and imports of travel services in the most recent periods. More information is available in the Overseas travel and tourism release.

Data revision policy

All of the data in this release have been revised back to January 2017 when compared with trade figures published in our previous trade bulletin on 10 August 2018.

National Statistics designation status

The UK Statistics Authority suspended the National Statistics designation of UK trade \(PDF, 72.8KB\) on 14 November 2014. We have now responded to all of the specific requirements of the reassessment of UK trade and are in the final stages of providing evidence to the Authority. We are undertaking a programme of improvements to UK trade statistics in line with the UK trade development plan, including more detail and improvements now published to address anticipated future demands. While delivering against this plan, we will continue to work with the Office for Statistics Regulation team to regain National Statistics status for UK trade statistics. We welcome feedback on this development plan.

Trade figures

Unless otherwise specified, data within this bulletin is in current prices.

3 . The total trade deficit narrowed in the three months to July 2018

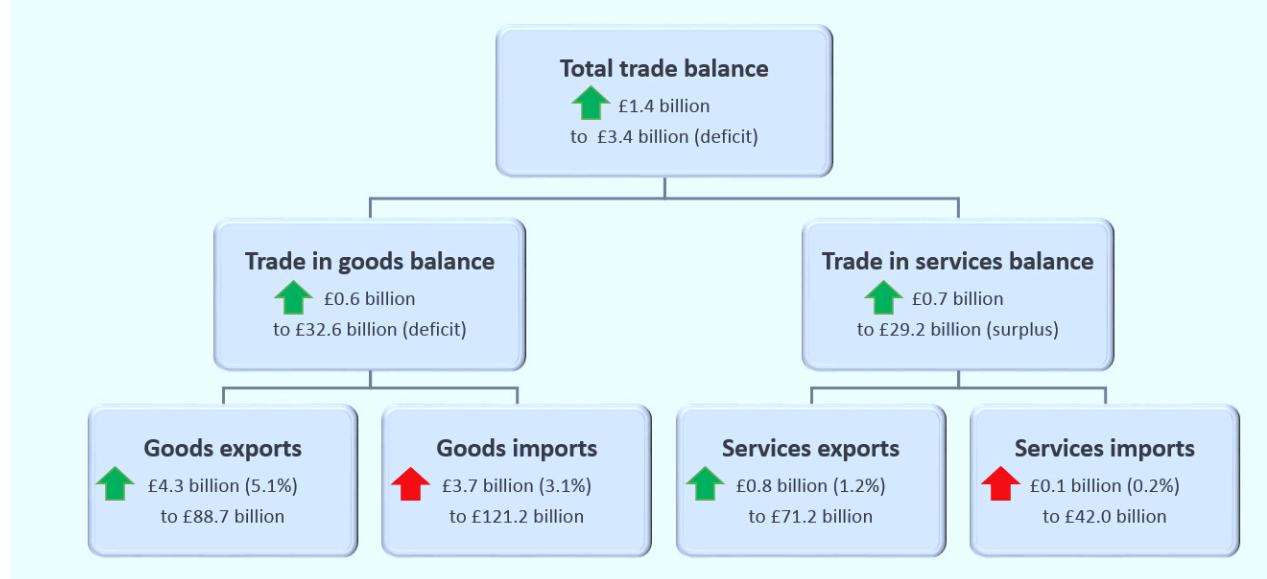

Figure 1 shows the change to goods, services and total trade balances along with exports and imports in the three months to July 2018 compared with the three months to April 2018.

The total UK trade deficit (goods and services) narrowed £1.4 billion to £3.4 billion in the three months to July 2018, as exports of goods and services both increased more than imports.

The trade surplus the UK has in services widened £0.7 billion to £29.2 billion in the three months to July 2018; exports of services increased £0.8 billion, while imports increased by a lesser £0.1 billion.

The trade in goods deficit narrowed £0.6 billion, as goods exports rose £4.3 billion compared with goods imports, which increased £3.7 billion.

Notes:

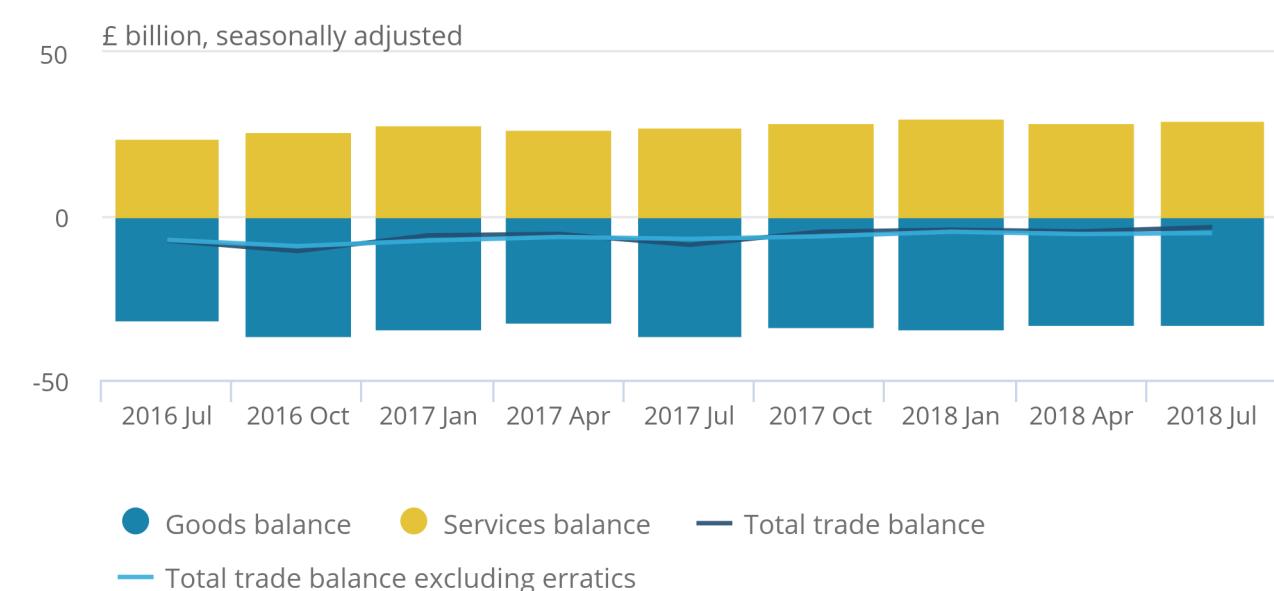

1. The arrow direction indicates whether a component has increased or decreased, while the colour denotes the impact the direction of a movement has on the trade balance.
2. For example, an increase in imports is denoted by an upward red arrow, as a rise in imports has a negative impact on the trade balance, while an increase in exports is denoted by an upward green arrow, as a rise in exports has a positive impact on the trade balance.

Figure 2 shows UK trade balances on a three-month on three-month basis between July 2016 and July 2018. The total trade balance ranged from a deficit of £10.7 billion in the three months to October 2016, to a deficit of £3.4 billion in the three months to July 2018.

Excluding erratic commodities (mainly aircraft and non-monetary gold), the total trade deficit narrowed £0.2 billion in the three months to July 2018.

4 . Removing the effect of inflation, the trade balance narrowed in the three months to July 2018

This section presents volume and price estimates of both the UK trade balances and total exports using chained volume measures (CVMs) and implied deflators (IDEFs). A CVM is a measure that has had the effect of inflation removed. An IDEF shows the implied change in average prices for the respective components of the trade balance.

Figure 3 shows CVMs for the UK trade balances, three-month on three-month, from July 2016 to July 2018. In the three months to July 2018, the total UK trade balance (goods and services) in CVM terms narrowed £2.0 billion to £2.5 billion.

Figure 4 shows CVMs and IDEFs for goods exports on a three-month on three-month basis between July 2016 and July 2018.

The narrowing of the total trade deficit in the three months to July 2018 (Figure 3) was due mainly to a £1.8 billion increase in goods exports (Figure 4).

5 . The trade in goods deficit widened with EU countries and narrowed with non-EU countries in the three months to July 2018

Figure 5 shows the change in goods exports, imports and trade balances with EU and non-EU countries between the three months to July 2018 and the three months to April 2018.

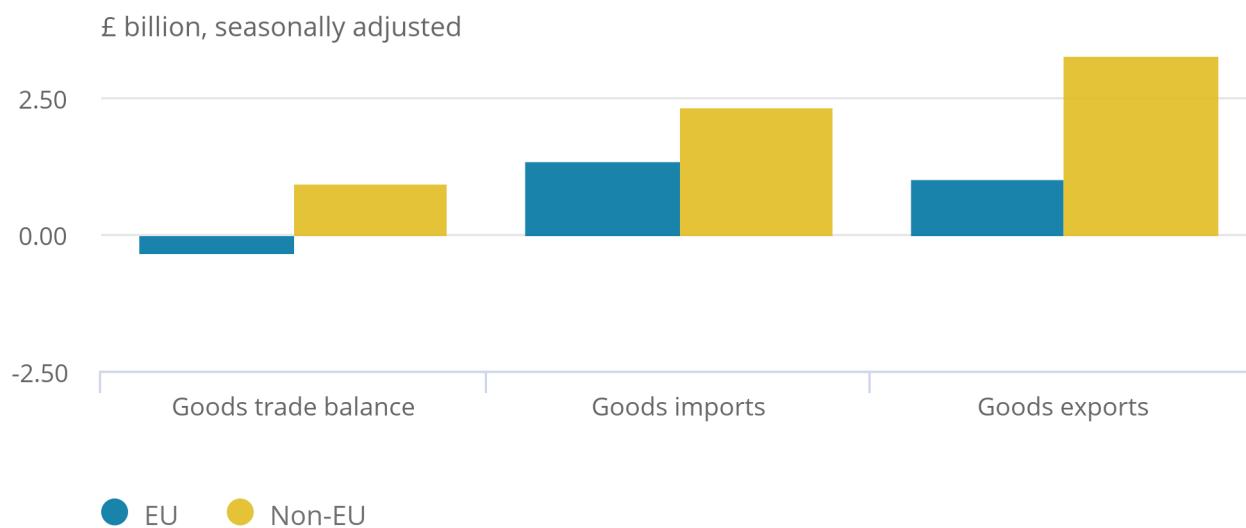

The trade in goods deficit widened £0.3 billion to £23.6 billion with EU countries and narrowed £1.0 billion to £8.9 billion with non-EU countries in the three months to July 2018 (Figure 5).

The widening of the trade in goods deficit with the EU was due to a larger increase in goods imports compared with goods exports in the three months to July 2018; imports increased £1.4 billion, while exports rose by £1.0 billion.

Non-EU exports and imports both increased by more than those to and from the EU in the three months to July 2018; exports to non-EU countries increased £3.3 billion, while imports were up £2.3 billion.

6 . Improvements in the goods and services balances resulted in the trade deficit narrowing in the 12 months to July 2018

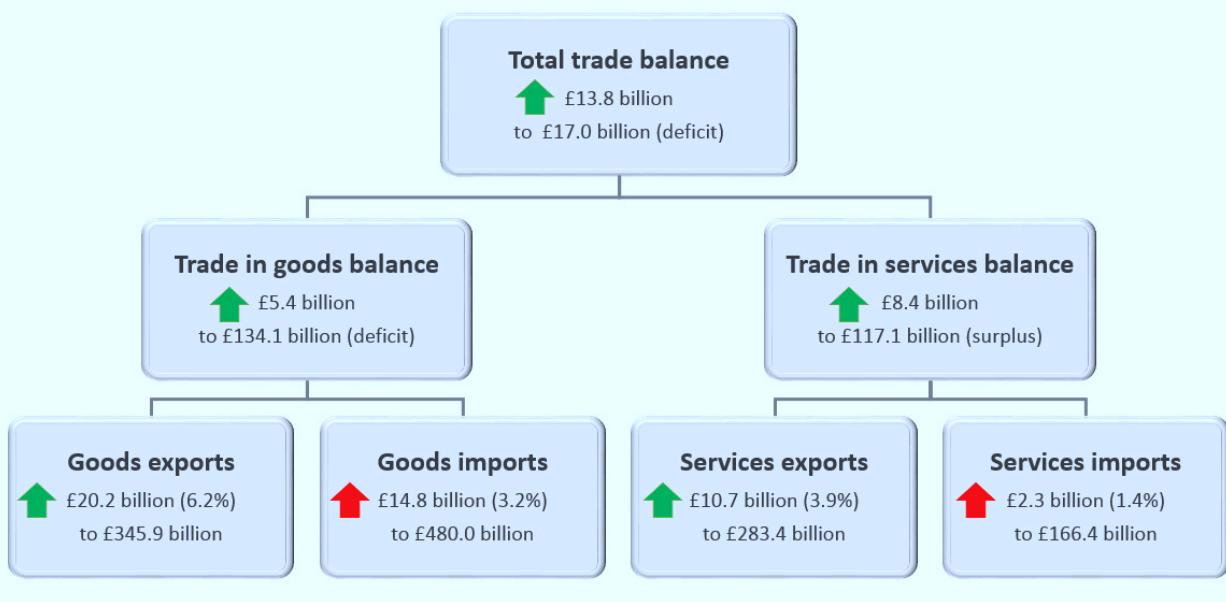

Figure 6 shows the change to goods, services and total trade balances along with exports and imports in the 12 months to July 2018, compared with the 12 months to July 2017.

The total UK trade deficit (goods and services) narrowed £13.8 billion to £17.0 billion in the 12 months to July 2018. The improvement in the balance was driven by exports of goods and services increasing by more than their respective imports.

The main driver was the trade in services surplus, which widened £8.4 billion to £117.1 billion in the 12 months to July 2018; services exports rose £10.7 billion compared with £2.3 billion for imports.

The goods deficit narrowed £5.4 billion to £134.1 billion in the 12 months to July 2018; exports of goods increased £20.2 billion, while imports of goods rose by a lesser £14.8 billion.

7 . Goods exports and imports increased by more with the EU compared with non-EU countries in the 12 months to July 2018

Figure 7 shows the change in UK goods exports, imports and trade balances with EU and non-EU countries in the 12 months to July 2018 compared with the 12 months to July 2017. The goods deficit with the EU narrowed £2.6 billion compared with a narrowing of £2.7 billion for non-EU countries in the 12 months to July 2018.

Published in July 2018, UK trade in goods and productivity: new findings describes a new dataset we have developed, which includes information from both the Annual Business Survey and HM Revenue and Customs' trade in goods administrative data. It shows a strong association between trader status and productivity, highlighting the prevalence of trading behaviour across different types of business (published 6 July 2018).

Supplementary quarterly data analysed by product according to the UK trade in goods by classification of product by activity \(CPA 2008\) are also available.

The complete run of data in the tables of this statistical bulletin are also available to view and download in other electronic formats free of charge using our time series data website service. You can download the complete statistical bulletin in a choice of formats, or view and download your own selection of individual series.

Goods data are now available by commodity and partner country in this release that are consistent with the national accounts on a balance of payments basis. Background information on these data are available via the Trade in goods, country-by-commodity experimental data: 2011 to 2016 we published in April 2016.

We now publish the proportion of sales that are exports in the manufacturing industries as an Excel dataset to accompany the Index of Production release. The proportion of export sales have been published for industries collected by the Monthly Business Survey where the value of exports are reported as well as the total turnover. These are non-seasonally adjusted series.

On 28 October 2016, we published an article containing information on trade – Why has the value of the pound been falling and what could this mean for people in the UK?

On 5 September 2016, we published a short story on the UK trade and investment relationship with the USA. This is part of a series that began in June 2015; previous topics cover South America, China and Africa.

Additional statistical data and analyses for UK trade statistics that have not been included in our standard publications are also available.

11 . Quality and methodology

Trade is measured through both imports and exports of goods and/or services. Data are supplied by over 30 sources including several administrative sources, HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) being the largest.

This monthly release contains tables showing the total value of trade in goods together with index numbers of volume and price. Figures are analysed by broad commodity group (values and indices) and according to geographical area (values only). In addition, the UK trade statistical bulletin also includes early monthly estimates of the value of trade in services.

Further qualitative data and information can be found in the attached datasets. This includes data on:

- response rates
- revision triangles

Detailed methodological notes are published in the UK Balance of Payments, The Pink Book 2018.

The UK trade methodology web pages have been developed to provide detailed information about the methods used to produce UK trade statistics.

The UK trade Quality and Methodology Information report contains important information on:

- the strengths and limitations of the data and how it compares with related data
- uses and users of the data
- how the output was created
- the quality of the output including the accuracy of the data
