Subject: Gov.uk webpage

[REDACTED], [REDACTED],

To give you heads up in case you are not aware of it, I recently saw the webpage at <https://www.gov.uk/government/statistics/recorded-crime-in-scotland-financial-year-ending-march-2014> which indicates that the annual PRC stats were published on 1st Oct as National Statistics. While the link just goes through to your homepage which of course doesn't have the up to date statistics, it could be confusing for users. It would be worth having a chat with the folk at gov.uk so they can update the page with correct information.

Best wishes,

[REDACTED].
