Hi [REDACTED],

Please find attached some minor amendments to wording. On a similar line to previous correspondence; greater emphasis on trials data, estimating 'occupancy patterns' as opposed to 'unoccupied' and greater clarity around privacy requirements.

Any questions, feel free to contact me.

Best wishes,

Subject: Census user consultation

Hi [REDACTED],

Over the next few months ONS will be putting out a Census User Consultation. This is when ONS goes out to users and starts a conversation about the types of outputs that they might want from the Census and helps to inform what questions we include. The Census people want a few short paragraphs about our big data project, and potential benefits for ONS.

Would you mind taking a look at the attached to check you're happy with it please. There's only one sentence which directly relates to smart meters, but I imagine such a consultation would have a wide audience. I would be grateful for any comments by 20 March please. Thanks very much.

Kind regards,
